MAYOR'S MESSAGE

We have refreshed our Community Plan, which was originally developed in 2007, using a combined process of community consultation and internal collaboration. We continue to connect with our community and our organisation, refining and refreshing this plan to ensure it continues to create our shared vision to form a strong, connected community with exciting places, sustainable strategies and economic opportunity.

The City of Charles Sturt was named after the famous Australian explorer who once lived in our city. We are proud to share our heritage, history and beautiful places with residents, visitors and businesses alike.

Our City is a diverse, vibrant and friendly place to live. We are a community that values our rich tapestry of people, ideas, perspectives and experiences. From within our country and across the world, people have made the City of Charles Sturt their home, bringing colour and flavour together in harmony. We have almost 120,000 residents from over 100 different cultures. We recognise the land on which our City is built is Kurna land, home to one of the oldest living cultures in the world. Here, we welcome all people and cultures into our city to share traditions and values with each other. We champion unity in diversity. Wherever you are from, here you are home.

People choose to live and do business in our City because we are close to the beach, the central business district, the port, the airport and regional shopping facilities. We are recognised as a sporting and entertainment hub of Adelaide with national basketball and soccer stadiums, three championship standard golf courses, an international rowing course, the River Torrens Linear Park, and our 12kms of coast. Our services are created specifically for our community, with a strong connection to our environment, partnering with our community to protect and preserve our natural environments. We also look to the future, preparing for forecast growth in our population.

We are committed to providing meaningful connections with our community, showing passion for our approach and care for all people. We will strive to progress and evolve our range of services, activities and projects, responding to the needs of our residents and businesses. We will be courageous as we look to the future and the challenges of climate, population growth and changing living pressures, and we will work tirelessly in partnership with our residents and businesses who choose to call our City home.

CEO'S MESSAGE

The way we live in Charles Sturt is shaped by the dynamic energy and spirit of our community. We share a quality of life that welcomes residents and visitors from around the world and unites us all in one place together. We are welcoming and inclusive, enhancing each other's strengths and celebrating our different experiences.

Our Community Plan has been developed through community consultation and internal collaboration, and this refreshed plan in 2020 has been further strengthened with more community and internal engagement. This plan is a commitment to work with our community and what we plan to achieve. Our plan is designed to be a living, flexible document that focuses on forming strong connections with our residents and businesses across the city. It provides opportunities for us to think progressively about linking our community with exciting places, collaborating to produce sustainable strategies, and demonstrating courageous leadership as we enhance opportunities for all people. Our Community Plan is a vision for us to achieve in partnership with our community.

Our plan recognises our regional alliances, and considers the State Strategic Plan and the State Government's strategic directions. We have also considered our City's assets which are valued at over a $1.9 billion including roads, footpaths, stormwater, property and community facilities like libraries, playgrounds and community centres. Together with these physical assets, we have planned for our social infrastructure to ensure we deliver services with genuine care, enabling our community to remain healthy, safe and active. Tying these physical assets and social interactions together, our plan also delivers ways to activate and engage with public spaces in a way that respects our environment and highlights the importance of building a sustainable future for our City. We will continue to be a passionate, driving force behind economic expansion and support local employment opportunities.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Community Plan; it is an exciting yet simple and clear plan that we are incredibly proud of. It is also a public commitment to our City that we value our diverse and united community and continue to celebrate our strong connections with each other. We will provide unique, great places across our City. We will pursue environmentally sustainable practices. Our economic strategies will be targeted. Our leadership will be courageous and progressive. This is our commitment to our City, and we look forward to celebrating the outcomes of this plan as our diverse, united and dynamic community thrives.

We welcome your ongoing connections and encourage you to become involved as we embrace change and look to the future of the City of Charles Sturt.
